

Memberships, Donations & Volunteers

Supporting Membership

- May be entered by any individual and person of age, as well as legal entities, corporations, proprietorships, associations, partnerships and clubs.
- Annual membership rate (12 months) is €25.--. This amount becomes due at the beginning of each membership. Membership fees are not accepted as tax deductible by the German Revenue Office!
- In addition to membership fees, supporting members are welcome to donate any amount of funds as a financial gift. As donations are considered tax deductible by the German Revenue Office, receipts may be obtained from flight-aid.
- Members are entitled to receive the flight path newsletter 4 times a year as well as any pertinent information on flight-aid's operation, missions and developments.
- A supporting member is not a member of the General Assembly and does not have any voting rights.
- No obligations apart from membership fees are associated with a supporting membership.

Donations

- Any amount of funds or material may be donated to flight-aid without entering a supporting membership.
- Donations may be given anonymously and without any further obligation.
- Donations are considered tax deductible by the German Revenue Office.

Volunteers

- Any person willing to donate his/her skills and time to support flight-aid's operation within the organization's volunteer programme.
- Volunteers may be accepted at the board of directors' discretion.

Active Membership

- Open to an individual or person who has previously worked with flight-aid as a volunteer or in an unpaid position.
- Membership application has to be filed and presented to flight-aid's board of directors.
- Membership can solely be granted by flight-aid's board of directors.
- No membership fee applies.
- Active participation through voting rights at General Assemblies.

Honorary Membership

- May be awarded only by the board of directors and at the board's discretion.